- D. Examine the federal judiciary..

COURSE PRACTICES:PARTICIPATION REQUIREMENTS

Online courses require a clear pattern of participation for all students. The attendance standard for IWCC is that each student logs in and participates in some meaningful way, i.e. assignment completion, forum discussion, quiz completion, etc., inside of the online course—at a minimum—at least one time each week, as measured from Monday to Sunday. If this standard isn't met for any week in the semester points will be deducted.

STANDARDS FOR WRITTEN WORK

All written work must be typed and submitted via the ROC course site. This is a college class and college level work is expected. Points will be deducted for spelling, grammar, punctuation, etc, errors. Additionally formatting is important for some assignments. All work must be submitted as Microsoft Word documents to the appropriate Course Dropbox. Do NOT use Google docs, open documents, pdfs or zipped files.

LATE PAPERS AND ASSIGNMENTS

Late work is not acceptable and will earn NO points.

MISSED EXAMS

Tests are expected to be taken on the date provided (either in the syllabus or as changed by the professor). Tests are open book, open note. Tests are not proctored but are timed. Late tests are not permitted.

EXTRA CREDIT

There is no planned extra credit. Should the unlikely opportunity arise, extra credit may be offered to the entire class.

ONLINE CLASSROOM MANAGEMENT AND BEHAVIOR:

It is expected that all students in the online environment address classmates and the instructor cordially and professionally. While debate and discussion may be the norm in a college classroom, doing so respectfully is the class standard. (I will address you in a way that recognizes the respect and dignity you deserve as a scholar at this institution, and I expect the same from you to each member of the course. This standard applies to all of us even during moments of disagreement.) Any violation of this policy could result in consequences from a reprimand to expulsion from class, depending upon the severity of the incident. All course work must be submitted through the ROCLMS. Emailed work will not be accepted.

COMMUNICATION WITH INSTRUCTOR:

The BEST, and really only way on this short term, to communicate with me (Mrs T) is via email. My email address is listed at the top of the first page. Students must use their IWCC email when contacting the instructor about matters related to the course. I will almost always answer emails within 24 hours and usually much more quickly. I will not promise to answer emails from Friday until Monday morning, but I often do. If you have an assignment due on Monday, you need to ask your questions BEFORE Friday to be certain that you receive a timely answer. Typically assignments will be returned within a week of the due date, often by the next day. Assignments are NEVER graded before the due date. If the assignment is particularly lengthy or happens to come at a particularly busy time in the term (like the last few days of term), the assignment may take a bit longer to score. Students must use their IWCC email when contacting the instructor about matters related to the course.

INSTRUCTIONAL TECHNIQUES AND PRACTICES

This is a totally online course. We will utilize typed lectures, reading assignments, discussion, videos, etc. Work must be completed in a timely manner. There are no field trips or off-campus activities. There are no collaborative assignments (all work is expected to be your own). Collaboration is in violation of the Student Code of Conduct. No in-class presentations are required.

GRADING

Tests: There are eleven chapters scheduled for this semester, each chapter has a test. Additionally there is a syllabus quiz. There is no cumulative final. Tests may be composed of true-false, matching, multiple choice, fill-in-the-blank, or short answer questions. Each test is worth 10 points each. Tests are not open for post-test review – ever . . . think of this as similar to the ACT or SAT tests. This is a measure to insure test integrity and is not open to negotiation.

Assignments: There are several assignments in this class! All assignments are written assignments and will require some amount of research. Each assignment has a specific due date. Remember there are NO late assignments. Specific assignment requirements are found inside our course site. Total point value of assignments is 100 points.

Assignments: 100 points
