“Everybody can be great. Because anybody can serve. You don’t have to have a college degree to serve. You don’t have to make your subject and your verb agree to serve. You don’t have to know about Plato and Aristotle to serve. You don’t have to know Einstein’s Theory of Relativity to serve. You don’t have to know the second Theory of Thermodynamics in physics to serve. You only need a heart full of grace. A soul generated by love.”

   - Exploring your intended major or career?

Welcome to service-learning at IWCC. Service-learning is about helping you grow and develop, while at the same time helping meet important community needs. Although we realize that your service-learning project will require a great deal of effort, and even sacrifice on your part, we can almost guarantee that you are about to embark upon an experience that will make a major contribution to your learning and personal growth.

You will be joining thousands of college and university students all over the United States who are involved in service projects designed to enhance classroom learning, foster civic responsibility, and meet community needs. On behalf of Iowa Western Community College, the Learning Initiatives Center, and the agencies you will be assisting, we extend our appreciation and gratitude.

Please be certain to review this Handbook carefully as it will guide you through the experience, as well as provide you with answers to frequently asked questions. It also includes all the forms you need to successfully complete your service-learning project.

Thank You, Thank You, Thank You!!!
WHAT IS SERVICE-LEARNING?

Service-learning is defined as any program in which students learn and develop through thoughtfully organized service experiences that meet real community needs.

WHY DO SERVICE-LEARNING?

- ACTIVE LEARNING -- The best way to learn is through active participation.

- PERSONAL GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT -- One of the best ways to help yourself, is to help someone else. Through service, you will gain skills that will help you for the rest of your life.

- MEETING COMMUNITY NEEDS -- Do you think we can rely on government to solve all our problems? Each one of us must do our part to help make our community better.

- CIVIC RESPONSIBILITY -- Our country was founded on an ethic of service. The health of our democracy depends on service and community involvement. Working toward the common good is something we must all practice.

HOW DO I GET STARTED?

1.) TALK TO YOUR INSTRUCTOR

- What are the deadlines?
- How many hours are required?
- What else is involved? (journals, class presentations, class discussions, reading assignments, etc.)
- Which agencies are approved for this class? (your service experience must be related to your class)

2.) Complete the “Service-Learning Application”--page 11 of this handbook.
   (Turn this in to the Service-Learning Initiatives Center –inside the Student Center—after you have confirmed your placement.)

3.) CALL THE AGENCY CONTACT PERSON AND ARRANGE AN INTERVIEW AND ORIENTATION

- Identify yourself as an IWCC service-learning student and clarify any questions you may have.
- Take the “Service-Learning Placement Confirmation Agreement”--with you to your interview/orientation and complete it with your supervisor.

- Turn in the Confirmation Agreement to the Service-Learning Initiatives Center (A-172) by the deadline.

- Start as soon as possible.

4.) SHOW UP AT YOUR SCHEDULED TIMES, KEEP TRACK OF YOUR HOURS, AND COMMUNICATE REGULARLY WITH YOUR SUPERVISOR

- Use “Service-Learning Student Log” to keep track of your hours by week. This should be turned in to the Service-Learning Initiatives Center (A-172).

- Have your agency supervisor complete the “Community Partner Evaluation of Student” at midterm and at the end of your service project. Turn this in to the Service-Learning Initiatives Center (A-172).

- Complete the anonymous “Student Evaluation of Service-Learning Experience” after completing your service-learning experience. Turn this in to the Service-Learning Initiatives Center (A-172) by the end of the Semester.
KEYS TO SUCCESS

BE PROACTIVE

❖ Start your service early in the term to obtain the maximum benefit from your experience.

❖ Being proactive means taking charge of your own experience. By being responsible, you can make your experience one that is meaningful, positive, and allows you to learn and grow.

❖ If you are bored, feel like you aren’t doing something worthwhile, or are in any way dissatisfied—TALK TO YOUR SUPERVISOR OPENLY AND HONESTLY TO RESOLVE THE PROBLEM.

❖ Feel free to call the Service-Learning Initiatives Center for assistance, however, 99% of the issues you might face can be solved by simply speaking with your supervisor.

RESPONSIBILITY & COMMITMENT

❖ The Agency is counting on you...show them they can!

❖ Treat your service-learning assignment like a job:

    ✓ Be prompt for your interview/orientation.
    ✓ Set up a schedule and stick to it.
    ✓ Call your supervisor ahead of time if you can’t attend--and arrange to make up the missed hours.

❖ As a service-learning student you are representing:

    Yourself - Your instructor – IWCC- The entire service-learning program.

❖ Keep this in mind and do a great job!

❖ If you drop the class or stop your service for any reason, please inform both the agency and the Service-Learning Initiatives Center.
