Some, but not all, courses at Iowa Western require a subscription to an online textbook service such as Pearson MyLab or Cengage Unlimited. When this type of subscription service is required in a course, a flat fee is charged to the student's account when the student registers for the course. Students have the option to "opt-out" of this service within the first week of classes. By opting out, the student is responsible to obtain the required course materials on their own from a source outside the College Store. For information on how to opt-out, students should contact the Brandon Keller in the Business Office at 712-325-3226 or bkeller@iwcc.edu.

SUPPLEMENTAL MATERIALS:

Students can download the free version of Office 365 Suite from their ROC Portal Page for use in their courses. Students are responsible for protecting their own computer equipment through use of anti-virus and anti-malware tools for work within their IWCC courses; they may consider these free options (click on link). Students using computers in labs and other facilities on campus are further held to the standards of IWCC Acceptable Use Policy and the Computer Ethics and Use Policy. Both are located on the ROC Student Portal Page under the Technology menu button FAQ area.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES AND COURSE COMPETENCIES:

The Learning Objectives for this course are (upon successful completion of this course, the student will be able to):

- A. Explain the science of Sociology
- B. Explain the relationship between the individual and society
- C. Explain the process of social differential and inequality
- D. Identify and explain the relationship between the different types of social institutions and society
- E. Explain the process by which culture and societies change

COURSE PRACTICES:

Attendance will be taken for each class session. All course work must be submitted through the ROC LMS. Emailed work will not be accepted without prior instructor approval.

Late work is accepted at the discretion of the instructor, unless prior arrangements have been made. Late submissions are automatically penalized by 30%.

PARTICIPATION REQUIREMENTS FOR ONLINE COURSES:

Online courses require a clear pattern of participation for all students. The attendance standard for IWCC is that each student logs in and participates in meaningful ways, i.e. assignment completion, forum discussion, quiz completion, etc., within the course outline a minimum of one time each week. A week is measured from Monday through Sunday. If this standard is not met for any week within the course term. If this standard is not met for any week within the course term, the student forfeits all potential points earned that week. If any late assignments are accepted, a 30% penalty will be applied.

Communication with Instructor:

The best way to contact me is through text at 402-281-3649. In addition, you can call my office at 712-325-3483 or email me at kjohn@iwcc.edu. I will respond to all emails within 48 hours. Valid emails include a formal salutation, are checked for spelling and grammar and include course and student identification.

Emails using signs or symbols in place of words, “text talk”, slang, or emails with ambiguous requests may not be returned.

All emails asking to increase your grade, give you points, etc. may be forwarded to administration and will not receive a reply.

Students must use their IWCC email when contacting the instructor about matters related to the course.

SOCIAL DISTANCING IN RESPONSE TO COVID-19:

Students in an online class may choose to meet with their instructor during student assistance hours on campus or at a center location. Faculty, staff, and students are expected to take reasonable precautions while in an office setting to ensure the safety and wellbeing of all parties. Whenever possible, students should stay a minimum of six feet apart from other parties. Where seats and standing room is designated off limits, students should respect boundaries. All parties (faculty, staff, and students) are required to supply their own face covering that they are required to wear at all times during a face-to-face meeting. Individuals who arrive to the meeting without a face covering will be turned away. Students exhibiting symptoms of illness will be asked to leave the office and not return until they are symptom-free or can provide a note from a physician clearing them to return. Students will also be asked to leave if they fail to comply with social distancing practices. Students who refuse to leave will be escorted out of the building by Security.

GRADING:

- Chapter Readings and Chapter Quizzes (30% of final grade)
 - Students will complete chapter quizzes online which incorporate assigned chapter readings
- Sociology Discussions (30% of final grade)
 - Students will participate in class discussions throughout the assigned week by creating 1 new thread and commenting on 2 other student's threads', discussions are graded per the rubric found in our Canvas shell

One-on-one assistance is available on a drop-in basis. FREE online tutoring is available through Canvas or ROC. To access online tutoring click on the Online Tutoring tab next to My ROC Classes on your ROC home page or Online Tutoring in the left hand menu in Canvas. For more information about tutoring services or help in your classes, email tutoring@iwcc.edu or call 712-388-6841.

DROPPING CLASSES:

While we encourage you to do everything you can to complete your classes, it is always better to drop a class than to fail it. If it becomes necessary for you to drop a class you can drop a class online through ROC up to the last day to drop. We recommend that you always talk to your advisor and a financial aid department representative before you drop a class. For more information on dropping classes see the Advising Information Site in ROC under the Academics tab.

PERSONAL ELECTRONIC DEVICES:

To provide an environment conducive to learning, Iowa Western Community College requires that cellular phones, pagers, and other personal electronic devices be turned off or set to vibrate when entering classrooms, computer labs, library, offices, auditoriums, or arena areas. Cellular phones with picture taking capabilities are not allowed in bathrooms, locker rooms, or other areas where there is a reasonable expectation of privacy. Faculty members do have the right to prohibit the use of any electronic device in their classroom.

HONOR CODE – ACADEMIC HONESTY:

Upon enrolling at Iowa Western Community College, each student assumes an obligation to conduct her/his academic affairs in a manner compatible with the standards of academic honesty established by the College and its faculty. If this obligation is neglected or ignored by the student, disciplinary action will be taken. Please refer to the Student Code of Conduct for the Academic Dishonesty Policy.

FERPA:

Student rights concerning access to education records are spelled out in Federal Public Law 98-380 as amended by Public Law 93-568 and in regulations published by the Department of Education. The law and regulations require educational institutions to limit the disclosure of information from the student's record to those who have the student's written consent or to officials specifically permitted within the law. Students who wish to grant access to their education (class schedule, transcript of final grades, and progress reports) or financial records (grants, loans, financial aid documents, statements and billing) may do so by submitting an Access to Student Information Consent Form to the Records and Registration Office. Access to information is only given at the Records and Registration Office or Financial Aid and Cashier Offices. For more information, including the full Access to Student Information policy, refer to the Iowa Western Community College General Catalog or contact the Records and Registration Office.

DIVERSITY STATEMENT:

Iowa Western Community College values diversity and supports learning experiences that promote intellectual growth and human enrichment.

AMERICAN WITH DISABILITIES ACT STATEMENT:

If you are an individual with a disability who requires an accommodation to fully participate in academic programs or campus activities, please email disabilityservices@iwcc.edu or call 712-325-3299. Accommodations are arranged through the Disability Services Office, on the second floor of the Student Center on the Council Bluffs campus. Please allow adequate time to implement your accommodations. Accommodation testing must be scheduled 24 hours in advance. Any student with mobility impairments should prepare for an emergency ahead of time by instructing faculty and/or classmates on how to assist in case of an evacuation.

PREGNANT AND PARENTING STUDENTS:

Iowa Western does not discriminate against any student on the basis of pregnancy or related conditions. Absences due to medical conditions relating to pregnancy will be excused for as long as deemed medically necessary by a student’s doctor, and students will be given the opportunity to make up missed work. Students needing accommodations can seek assistance with accommodations from the Coordinator of Disability Services.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY AND NON-DISCRIMINATION:

It is the policy of Iowa Western Community College to provide equal educational opportunities and not to discriminate on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, national or ethnic origin, ancestry, genetic information, physical or mental disability, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, pregnancy, marital status, veteran status, AIDS/HIV status, citizenship, or medical condition, as those terms are defined under applicable laws, in its educational programs, activities, or employment practices.
